

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 24, 2015

Contact: Cyndi McAtee
Telephone: (317) 843-5641
Email: mcateec@reninc.com

Former Oracle Executive Joins Renaissance

Nation's Largest Charitable Gift Services Firm Adds More Firepower to Leadership

Indianapolis, Ind. – Living up to its billing as a Company to Watch, Renaissance LLC has announced the addition of Hugh Dyar to its executive leadership team. Hugh will serve as the Executive Vice President of Client Advancement & Strategic Marketing.

As a sales and marketing executive leading teams at IBM, Oracle and Unisys, and a partner at Accenture, Hugh brings extensive knowledge of mergers, acquisitions, and business outsourcing best practices to Renaissance. He has a consistent record of driving significant revenue, profit and market share at the companies where he has worked. His skillset and leadership will enhance even further Renaissance's position as an industry leader in charitable gift services.

An alumni of North Central High School, Hugh earned his undergraduate degree at Dartmouth College and completed graduate work at Xavier University.

"I am thrilled to join the Renaissance team at such an exciting point in their trajectory," said Hugh. "Charitable gift services is an industry on the move and I'm confident my knowledge, coupled with the incredible team in place, will propel Renaissance to the next level."

Renaissance was recently recognized as a 2015 Indiana Company to Watch by the Indiana Office of Small Business and Entrepreneurship (OBSE) for its exceptional growth and strong position for greater growth in the future. In the past 18 months, Renaissance has added four new executives to its leadership team and 25 new team members in client services and information technology.

"It is such an exciting time at Renaissance and bringing Hugh onto our team will only amplify the success we have already achieved," said Ed Thompson, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Hugh has a track record throughout his career of leading teams at companies as in the expansion of their brand and market footprint so he will bring a great perspective to our organization as we continue to enhance our revenue growth and magnify our brand."

About Renaissance LLC

As the nation's largest independent third party provider of charitable planned gift services, Renaissance supplies individuals and institutions with consulting, administrative and accounting services to amplify charitable giving in a tax efficient and cost effective way. Our holistic approach to planned giving includes expertise in legal, consulting, client services, information technology, compliance and reporting. Renaissance currently supports over $5 Billion of assets, consisting of over 4,600 charitable remainder trusts and charitable lead trusts as well as more than 7,600 donor-advised funds (DAFs) and endowment funds.

###