Dan Greenspon Joins RenPSG as Vice President of Business Development

Nation's largest independent philanthropic solutions provider continues to draw industry's top talent

Indianapolis, Ind. – RenPSG, the largest independent philanthropic solutions group in North America, welcomes Dan Greenspon as their new Vice President of Business Development. Greenspon, a senior-level philanthropic planning specialist with more than 10 years of experience in advanced charitable gift planning, business development, and relationship management will advance the organization's nationwide footprint and help RenPSG continue to lead the way in the market.

Most recently, Greenspon served as Director of Development at National Philanthropic Trust, working with ultra-high-net worth families and professional advisers to bring capital to the social sector clients particularly in donating complex assets, impact investing, specialized grantmaking services and legacy planning.

"We're thrilled to welcome Dan to the RenPSG team," said Ed Thompson, President and CEO at RenPSG. "He is well respected and recognized within the industry and will serve as a great addition to the Client Advancement staff. Dan is sure to expand our national reach as we continue to garner top talent and serve our ever-growing client base. We are excited to have him on board."

Prior to his tenure at National Philanthropic Trust, Greenspon was a Philanthropic Consultant at Vanguard Charitable Endowment Program managing relationships with donors over a portfolio totaling $300 Million.

"It is an honor to join the RenPSG team," Greenspon said. "RenPSG's ability to provide a broad administration platform and holistic approach to charitable consulting makes it the best in the business. I am excited to provide customized solutions for institutions, advisors, and donors who want to increase impact by lowering their administrative costs. My entire career has been spent in the charitable space and I am looking forward to the opportunity to offer a best-in-class gift administration platform for all types of charitable planning needs."

Greenspon will maintain his office in the Greater Philadelphia area giving RenPSG an even broader national reach among its representatives and greater access to our clients based in the Northeast.
